

ANNAPURNA BASE CAMP TREKKING

GENERAL DETAILS

Category:	Trekking
Sub Category:	Annapurna Region
Region:	Annapurna
Duration:	15 days
Accommodation:	Tea-House (Lodge)
Altitude:	4130 m
Meals:	Breakfast/Lunch/Dinner
Difficulty:	Moderate
Activity:	Trekking (5 hours average daily walk)
Season:	March, April, May, September, October, November
Start/End Point:	Kathmandu - Kathmandu
Group Size:	2-30
Total Distance:	87 km / 54.5 miles
Transportation:	Flight and Private vehicle

GROUP DISCOUNTS

2 - 4 pax	: $ 1350.00
6 - 12 pax	: $ 1200.00
14 - 24 pax	: $ 1100.00

* The above price resembles price per person.

TRIP OVERVIEW

Annapurna Base Camp Trekking is a magnificent destination amidst the amphitheater of giant snow-dusted mountains that can be an adventure for all travelers and age groups. The walk reaches you to the heart of the staggering and towering Annapurna Himalayan range of peaks.

Stand beneath Mt. Annapurna-I, which soars high at 8,091 m/26,545 feet, the first 8,000-meter peak ever climbed in the history of mountaineering. It was summited by French Expeditions in 1950.

The journey begins with an interesting walk following the Modi River upstream right up to its glacial source at Annapurna Base Camp. The highest point of the adventure is at 4,130 m, within an array of peaks of massif Annapurna Himalayas. It is the shortest and most scenic base camp trek in the Himalayan region, starting and ending at beautiful Pokhara. The journey follows to the mid-hills and traditional Gurung villages of Ghandruk. Then heading up and down to Chomrong, the last permanent village and the gateway to Annapurna Base Camp.

From Chomrong onwards, you walk in the wilderness within a pristine forest to reach the Modi River gorge at Bamboo and Dovan. A temporary settlement with several simple lodges. As the walk progresses heading for a steep climb above the tree lines to reach Machhapuchare Base Camp. Located bottom of staggering Mt. Machhapuchare Himal the famous Fish Tail peak.

Then entering the picturesque Sanctuary, the name given by early pioneers and explorers, as the Sanctuary of Gods or Mountain spirits. Annapurna Sanctuary is an overwhelming valley enclosed and well-hidden by towering snow-capped peaks of the Annapurna Himalayan range. Finally, the walk leads beneath the gigantic Annapurna-I, Vara Shikar/ Annapurna Fang, and Annapurna South peaks.

Enjoy the glorious scenery of Snow Mountains in the comfort of a nice lodge, and rooms with a beautiful view. After enjoying a wonderful experience at Annapurna Base Camp, our return journey is downhill with a few ups to Chomrong.

From Chomrong, on an alternative route down to Jhinu village, a place with natural hot springs to enjoy. After enjoying a fabulous time and experience on the hills of Annapurna Himalayas we then conclude the walks with an exciting drive back to beautiful Pokhara.

The best about this great adventure to Annapurna Base Camp Trekking is a combination with all the highlights of the southern region of Annapurna Himalayas, with Ghorepani and scenic Poon Hill which makes this trek more exciting and worth the experience.

For those interested in a tailored experience, Women Adventures offer a female trekking guide who can lead your journey. Our female-owned trekking company specializes in providing personalized services, and we are proud to offer an inclusive trekking experience. You can also request a female porter to support you throughout your journey, ensuring comfort and safety along the trail.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu (1,350 m)

On arrival at Tribhuvan International Airport in Kathmandu, you will be received by our lady staff. A short drive of 30 minutes from the airport takes you to the hub of Kathmandu city around the Thamel area to your hotel. After checking into your hotel, you can rest and get refreshed. After relaxing for a few minutes, you can join the Annapurna Base Camp trek briefing with our female trekking guide covering trek details, local lodge, and food. You can enjoy a dinner in nice authentic Nepali Restaurants with a cultural program in the evening. A good way as an introduction to Nepali Cuisines and Cultures to experience.

Day 2: In Kathmandu with sightseeing tour and trek preparations.

The day begins with breakfast, followed by visits to two significant sites: Pashupatinath Temple and Boudhanath Stupa. The tour is escorted by a government certified female tour guide.

Pashupatinath Temple, a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage site, is a revered Hindu temple dedicated to Lord Shiva. Located by the Bagmati River, it hosts Hindu cremation ceremonies and is especially important during Shivaratri, attracting numerous pilgrims.

After breakfast, we'll visit Boudhanath Stupa, one of Nepal's largest stupas, positioned east of Kathmandu. It's notable for its significant size and height, as well as its four pairs of eyes representing Mahayana Buddhist principles. Following a quick city tour, we'll return to the hotel to prepare for tomorrow's trek. The overnight stay will be at the hotel.

Day 3: Fly to Pokhara 860 m (30 mins by air), drive to Tikhedhunga 1,425 m (3 hours ride), and trek uphill to Ulleri village (2,050 m) 1.5 hrs walks.

After breakfast, our team will escort you to Kathmandu Domestic Airport Terminal for your short flight to Pokhara. The 30-minute flight offers stunning views of the Himalayan peaks. Upon arrival in Pokhara, we'll organize our belongings before embarking on a thrilling drive. Passing through Bhirethati village and ascending gradually to Hille, we'll reach Tikhedhunga where we can observe lovely views of waterfalls. From here, we start walking crossing a bridge with steep climb to Ulleri village for an overnight stop in the comfort of a nice mountain lodge with views of Annapurna peaks. Our female guides and porters bring not only expertise but also a unique perspective, creating a safe, supportive, and encouraging environment for you.

Day 4: Trek to Ghorepani village 2,885 m - 4.30 hrs.

Enjoy the morning glorious views of the Annapurna Himalayas with majestic Machhapuchare Himal, the Fish Tail Peak. After breakfast, we start the morning walks from Ulleri, a short day trek to Ghorepani which is about 3-4 hours walking distance. Our female guides and porters are at the front line, leading the way with confidence, strength, and a familiarity with the region. The trail follows winding slow-ups through a serene forest of rhododendrons and pine trees. As the walk progresses with a short climb reaching lower Ghorepani village, you enter the main gate. Then with a short climb to the top village of Ghorepani called Deurali, all houses with lodges are painted blue. A nice and scenic location amid beautiful rhododendrons and pine forest surroundings. The village stands at the base of the famous Poon Hill, the name Poon is one of the tribes of Magar, the main natives of the Western Hills of Nepal. At Ghorepani, we stop for lunch and overnight stop, which offers a beautiful view of the Dhaulagiri Himalayan range.

Day 5: Morning hike to Poon Hill and trek to Tadapani 2,640 m-06 hrs.

An early morning hike up for an hour, or more to reach on top of Poon Hill. From Poon Hill, enjoy the stunning sunrise views over arrays of snow peaks from Manaslu, Annapurna and Dhaulagiri Himal. For a better view, climb to a view tower that stands at the center of Poon Hill. After a refreshing morning with glorious views of sunrise with the mountain range, return down to Ghorepani. We do breakfast and pack our backpacks for the next overnight destination at Tadapani. This part of the trek is not just about exploring beautiful landscapes; it's about walking alongside a new wave of women entrepreneurs who are redefining the trekking industry in Nepal. The morning walk led to a climb through a lovely forest to the Deurali hilltop. A small place with few tea houses, and then walk downhill into a gorge to Banthati for the possible lunch stop. In the afternoon the path follows down and up to reach Tadapani for an overnight halt. A nice small settlement, situated amidst serene woodland in the shade of Annapurna Himalayas. On reaching Tadapani check into a nice simple lodge accommodation.

Day 6: Trek to Chomrong village 1,940 m - 05 hrs.

From Tadapani with a grand vista of the Annapurna Himalayas, the morning starts with a long descent through a densely forested trail. Then cross a bridge over Kimrong Khola/stream, the route leads to a steep climb reaching Gurjung village. A farm village with few Tea Houses and shops. After a short rest, we begin a pleasant walk on a stone-paved path that leads to Chomrong for an overnight halt, the last permanent villages, en route to Annapurna Base Camp.

Further, other overnight stops can be found here and these are temporary settlements to cater to the trekkers. Chomrong is almost as large as Ghandruk village populated by the Gurung hill people. The village provides many good lodges and food for trekkers delights, with views of Annapurna peaks. Our female guides and porters are trained professionals who bring a wealth of knowledge, skill and care to you during the trek.

Day 7: Trek to Bamboo 2,610 m- 6 hrs.

After a pleasant overnight in Chomrong, a morning walk follows down to cross a river, and then a climb leads to Sinuwa Danda. A small settlement on top of a ridge with few nice lodges, possible lunch stop. From Sinuwa a nice walk through lovely dense woods on winding ups with a short descent to Bamboo. A place amidst bamboo groves and pine forest, located above the Modi River with several good lodges. Our focus is on creating a safe, inclusive, and supportive trekking experience where women can excel as leaders, and where their stories can inspire you.

Day 8: Trek to Deurali - 04 hrs.

From Bamboo, we walk into a Modi River gorge, through thick vegetation and tree lines with a few hour's walks. To reach Dovan, we past an isolated small place with few nice huts and cottages which serves as lodges and guest houses. Our female guides are not only experts in navigation and safety but also skillful to adapt with the changes in the community.

From Dovan the adventure begins following the Modi River upstream and reaching a higher elevation. The climb leads through dense vegetation and tall tree lines to reach Himalaya

Hotel, a place with few good lodges. After a refreshing stop, the walk continues over rocky debris of moraine from the old avalanches of Huin-Chuli peak. The walk leads close to the river and a short steep climb reaching a flat field or small plateau at Deurali. Spend overnight at Deurali.

Day 9: Trek to Annapurna Base Camp 4,130 m - 03.5 hrs.

We commence the day hike after we finish our breakfast at Deurali. The afternoon walk follows the other side of the Modi River. We climb through smaller bamboo thickets and as we go up the tree lines drop for short bushes and shrubs. After a good climb of a few hours, we reach on top of a ridge where MBC (Machhapuchare Base Camp) is located. It is standing beneath the towering North West Face of staggering Machhapuchare Himal.

From Machhapuchre Base Camp, it is a short climb on a grassy slope, to enter the picturesque Sanctuary which is enclosed within tiers of jagged giant peaks. The walk follows due west on a gradual winding path. Then reaching a flat ground with a welcome signboard to Annapurna Base Camp, a short climb to a grassy area. The area consists a several good lodges situated right beneath the towering East Face of Mt. Annapurna-I with Vara Shikar or Annapurna Fang. We then transfer into a nice lodge for lunch and overnight on the highest spot of the journey. You can celebrate the achievements as women who have overcome challenges and carved your own paths in a traditionally male-dominated field.

Afternoon at leisure, you can marvel at the spectacular views of snow peaks that surround the sanctuary and Annapurna Base Camp. The views include from main Annapurna - I, Vara Shikar, Gangapurna Himal towards north-west with A-South and Huin-Chuli in the south. The views also include Tent Peak / Tharpu Chuli, Fluted or Singu Chuli with Machhapuchare Himal, and arrays of lesser peaks.

Day 10: Trek to Bamboo 2,050 m - 06-07 hrs.

After the shortest walks of the previous day, today is the longest trekking hour to reach Bamboo from ABC. After a wonderful mesmerizing moment at Annapurna Base Camp and Sanctuary, we do our good breakfast. The adventure begins downhill to Deurali passed MBC, and then with a few short climbs to the Himalaya Hotel and Dovan. Then the day completes on reaching Bamboo for an overnight stop, after a long and exciting day. You then transfer to a nice lodge for afternoon tea and dinner around the main route of Annapurna Base Camp.

Day 11: Trek to Jhinu-Danda a place with hot spring 1, 700 m - 05 hrs.

From Bamboo, ascend briefly to Khuldi Ghar, then follow a winding trail to Sinuwa Danda. We then descend to a river, cross a bridge, and climb steeply to Chomrong for lunch. Afterward, the trek is downhill to Jhinu-Danda for the final overnight stay. Enjoy a natural hot spring nearby for a refreshing dip after the day's adventures.

As you enjoy the breathtaking views and the rejuvenating hot springs, know that you are part of a movement that promotes women rising to new challenges and enjoying success together.

Day 12: Drive to Pokhara- 03 hrs.

After a delightful overnight stay in Jhinu village, the morning begins with a brief stroll across the bridge, leading to New Bridge for crossing over the Modi River. Following the bridge crossing, embark on an exhilarating drive back to Pokhara along the same scenic highway. The journey improves as you join the main highway, eventually arriving in Pokhara for an overnight stay in the cozy comfort of a charming hotel.

Day 13: Fly to Kathmandu

After enjoying breakfast at the hotel, it's time to catch the flight back to Kathmandu. We then transfer you to Pokhara domestic airport, which now also serves international flights. Afterwards, check-in and board a moderate-sized airplane for a scenic flight to Kathmandu. Upon arrival at Kathmandu airport, a brief drive will take you to the hotel. The rest of the afternoon is yours to relax and unwind at leisure.

Day 14: In Kathmandu free day, for individual activities with options for tours.

You have a leisure day in Kathmandu to unwind and engage in personal activities, including shopping for Nepalese souvenirs like handicrafts and jewelry. Those interested can also request a tour of the captivating cities of Patan and Bhaktapur for an additional adventure.

Day 15: International departure from Kathmandu

On your final day in Kathmandu and Nepal, after an enriching adventure exploring the Annapurna Himalayas, it's time for your international flight. Our female guide and staff will accompany you to the airport, where you bid farewell to Nepal, your guide, and the staff. As you enter the terminal for your journey home or to your next destination, you carry with you the memories of your unforgettable experiences in Nepal.

 Please note that the schedule is subject to change due to weather conditions and other unforeseen circumstances.

INCLUDED SERVICES

- Both pickup and drop from the airport
 - One-way flight ticket from Pokhara to Kathmandu
 - Accommodation in 3-star standard hotels in Kathmandu and Pokhara including breakfast
 - All meals (breakfast, lunch, dinner) throughout the trek
 - Tea or coffee 3 times a day during the trek
 - Lodging in tea houses during the trek
 - Certified A graded female trekking guide, potter (helper), and assistant guide for groups consisting of more than 5 trekkers
 - All expenses for the female trekking staff, including food, drinks, lodging, salary, insurance, medical equipment, and transportation.
 - All necessary trekking permits, including the Trekking Permit (TIMS), and the Annapurna Conservation Area Permit (ACAP).
 - Essential gear for the trek such as a down jacket, sleeping bag, fleece liner, and a duffel bag.
 - Sightseeing in Pokhara, with a guide, private transportation, and entrance fees.
 - Cultural and historical sightseeing in Kathmandu, with a certified female tour guide, private transportation, and entrance fees.
 - All government taxes into the overall package.
-

EXCLUDED SERVICES

- Bar bills (alcoholic drinks, mineral water), cigarettes, client's insurance, and any kind of unforeseen & personal expenses
- Your insurance must include comprehensive coverage like emergency helicopter evacuation, to address unforeseen circumstances.
- Lunch and dinner, during your stay in Kathmandu
- Gratuities for the Guide and Porters which are not obligatory but are anticipated and suggested as an additional expense.
- Any expenses other than the price include section.
- All personal stuff
- Alcohol, soft drinks, and mineral water
- Sweets, candy, chocolate bars etc

- Lunch and dinner at Kathmandu and Pokhara
 - Gratuities for guide and porter.
-

FAQS

1. How long is the Annapurna Base Camp trek?

It takes roughly 7 to 12 days, depending on the route, pace, and level of acclimatization. Common starting points are Nayapul, Ghandruk, and Jhinu Danda. For further variation, you can add Ghorepani/Poonhill or Mardi Himal, we will customize itineray as per your requirement.

2. How difficult is the Annapurna Base Camp (ABC) trek?

The ABC trek is considered moderate. The trails are well-kept with consistent ascents and descents. The highest point is 4,130 meters, and no technical climbing is required. Proper fitness and gradual pacing are required for a successful trek.

3. Is ABC Trek for beginners?

Absolutely, ABC Trek is perfect for beginners with a basic fitness level. ABC is considered one of the high-altitudes treks for beginners in Nepal. Women Adventures makes it easy by providing guided tours, slow-paced itineraries, and offering acclimatization to make a comfortable trek for beginners.

4. How much does it cost for the Annapurna Base Camp trek?

The cost ranges from USD 500 to USD 1,000 depending on the size of the group, services and duration of the trek. This usually covers the cost of permits, transport, accommodation, meals, guides, porters, and gear rental in some cases.

5. What is the best time to do the Annapurna Base Camp trek?

The most promising time for the ABC trek is during spring (March to May) and autumn (September to November). These seasons, especially Spring, ensure perfect weather with clear blue skies and blooming rhododendrons. Whereas Autumn is a magical time to explore wilderness, mountains, and rich culture.

6. Do I need a permit for the ABC trek?

Yes, you will need:

- Annapurna Conservation Area Permit (ACAP)
- Trekker's Information Management System (TIMS) Card

We take care of the permits when you book your trek with us.

7. What type of accommodation is available on the Annapurna Base Camp Trek?

You can expect a local teahouse with basic twin-sharing rooms, warm meals, and a cozy atmosphere. While blankets are provided, it is advisable to carry a sleeping bag for added warmth.

8. Is there internet access on the ABC trek?

Yes. Most of the tea houses particularly found in lower regions like Chhomrong, Ghandruk, and Bamboo offer Wi-Fi. The only issue here is you need to pay for the service and the speed is slow. Local SIM cards like NTC and Ncell have the possibility to work in some of these regions.

9. What should I pack for the ABC trek?

Some of the important items we would consider first are;

- Trekking Boots
- Warm Clothing And A Down Jacket
- Rain Gear
- Water Purification Tablets
- 4 Season Sleeping Bag
- Sunscreen, sunhat, and sunglasses

Please find the equipment list here.

10. Can I do the Annapurna Base Camp trek solo?

For various safety concerns, solo trekking without a guide is not allowed in the Annapurna region. You must hire a licensed guide or book a trek with a registered agency, which Women Adventures provides.

11. What if my question isn't listed?

No worries! Get more details on Annapurna Base Camp itinerary, and for more queries, you can directly talk to our expert at +977 9841290101 or email us at info@womanadventures.com

For for information regarding this package, please click on this link. You can also give us a call at +977 9841290101 or email us at info@womanadventures.com for further information.

Privacy Policy | Terms and Conditions

Copyright © 2025 Women Adventures. All rights reserved.