TRIP OVERVIEW

Manaslu Circuit Trekking or around Manaslu takes you on both scenic sides of Mt. Manaslu. The world's 8th highest Mt. Manaslu 8,163 m/26,781 feet, was first summited by the Japanese Expedition in 1956. The Manaslu Circuit treks start from the lower warm farm villages of the Gorkha district to the cooler alpine hills. Trekkers will reach the high picturesque Manaslu Valley enclosed by towering snow peaks of the Manaslu massif.

Trekkers will experience dramatic changes in climate, vegetation, and landscapes to local cultures. You can make Manaslu Circuit Trekking an exclusive adventure of a two-week time frame. This trek can be a perfect adventure for women of all ages whether you are travelling solo or with your fellow female explorers. For solo women trekkers, choosing a female only trekking guide agency ensures added safety, cultural insight, and empowerment. We are a female-owned trekking company providing reliable, licensed women trekking guide in Nepal and female porter support.

The trail leads you around the harmony of the impressive cultures of the native Manaslu villagers. The women of the Manaslu region, belonging to native tribes like the Gurungs and Tamangs, lead resilient and resourceful lives, engaging in agriculture, animal husbandry, and tourism. They significantly contribute to community development and serve as powerful symbols of women's empowerment by inspiring others through their dedication and hard work. A female trekking guide agency like Women Adventures supports this mission by promoting the role of local women in tourism.

You will walk beneath the massive Manaslu Himal range of peaks with views of the massif Ganesh Himal towards the east. The high and upper regions of Manaslu Circuit remained a forbidden country for the outside world around the late 1950s which then opened for foreign visitors in 1992. It was one of the restricted areas in Nepal. In the early days, it existed as the Trans Himalayan Salt Trade Route, due to its close borders with Tibet-China, where a caravan of yaks and mules laden with goods from both sides of the borders passed through. The trade still exists but in a small way than in the early days. This is why, it was known as Larke Bazaar, which is en route to Larke Phedi, Dharmasala. Dharmasala is the base of Larke-La Pass, where our trek leads to the end of Manaslu Valley rim.

The adventure continues following the Budhi-Gandaki River to its near glacial source at Upper Manaslu Valley. The walk proceeds to explore the lovely villages of Jagat, Dyang, and Namrung to Lo-Gaon, steeped with immense cultures of Buddhism religion. From Lo-Gaon, a lovely village with an impressive monastery located beneath the towering North Face of Mt. Manaslu. The high and scenic trail follows the route to Sama-Gaon, the major village of the Upper Manaslu Valley which is en route to Manaslu Base Camp and towards Larke-La Pass, as well as towards Nepal and Tibet borders.

Spend extra days in the large village of Sama Gaon, walking among towering mountain ranges to acclimatize and explore scenic viewpoints. Explore the traditional village of Sama-Gaon enriched with cultures amidst beautiful scenery. This is a key stop on the manaslu circuit trek itinerary. Trekkers will leave the Sama-Gaon, towards the end of Manaslu Valley on a windswept terrain, and past Samdo village to reach Dharmasala.

An early morning, a steep and long climb leads you to the top of Larke-La Pass. The highest point of the adventure rewards a glorious vista of surrounding snow-capped peaks which includes the grand panorama of Manaslu, Himlung, and Annapurna Himalayan range, as far as Ganesh Himal. After achieving our goals and main highlights of the adventures, the return journey is a long downhill passing through a lovely forest and eventually reaching at the other end of Larke Pass around Manang areas. A pleasant walk amidst an enchanting forest leads to Dharapani village, where our trek concludes. Enjoy the last overnight around the mountain village. From Dharapani, an exciting drive brings you to Kathmandu after a great and wonderful experience and adventure on Manaslu Circuit Trekking.

ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Kathmandu 1,340 m and transfer to hotel.

On arrival at Kathmandu International Airport, you will be received by our team of ladies staff and guide. After checking the NST (Nepal Standard Time) which is 5 hours and 45 minutes ahead of GMT, a short drive takes you in the hub of Kathmandu city around Thamel area to your hotels. After checking into your lovely rooms, get refreshed from the Jet Lag. The refreshments will energize you after which you can join the other members of the Manaslu Circuit Trekking team in the meeting room for a briefing.

The briefing will be provided by our lady guide and staff or Group Leader. She will provide information about the treks, local lodge and foods. The wide range of information about trek makes your holiday meaningful and enjoyable. Overnight at Hotel.

Day 2: In Kathmandu with sightseeing tour and trek preparations.

The day begins with breakfast, followed by visits to two significant sites: Pashupatinath Temple and Boudhanath Stupa. The tour is escorted by a government certified female tour guide.

Pashupatinath Temple, a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage site, is a revered Hindu temple dedicated to Lord Shiva. Located by the Bagmati River, it hosts Hindu cremation ceremonies and is especially important during Shivaratri, attracting numerous pilgrims.

After breakfast, we'll visit Boudhanath Stupa, one of Nepal's largest stupas, positioned east of Kathmandu. It's notable for its significant size and height, as well as its four pairs of eyes representing Mahayana Buddhist principles. Following a quick city tour, we'll return to the hotel to prepare for tomorrow's trek. The overnight stay will be at the hotel.

Day 3: Drive to Machha Khola 900 m / 2,952 feet approx. 07 hours. (160 km)

An early morning start after a good breakfast, for a long hour's overland journey to Maccha-Khola village. The drive follows the main busy national highway and diverts north towards Dhading district. Then, the trail continues on winding up and down to Arughat Bazaar, a moderate area in the Gorkha district with a sub-tropical climate.

From Arughat, we follow the Budi-Gandaki River past Soti-Khola to reach Maccha-Khola farm village for overnight stop. In Maccha-Khola we will stay in the comfort of a simple nice lodge accommodation. The driving distance is approx. 160 km/100 miles from Kathmandu to Maccha-Khola.

Day 4: Trek to Jagat 1,340 m via Dovan 1,070 m-07 hours.

Today is the first day of the trek and we start walking from Machha-Khola. After breakfast, the walk follows on a gradual winding path, passing through farm areas, small hamlets, and forests of pines and Sal trees. We then reach Tatopani, a place with a natural hot spring, where you can enjoy a refreshing bath if time permits. The walk continues to Khorla Besi for possible lunch stop. In the afternoon we climb towards a cooler hill to reach Jagat.

A lovely hill village with many nice lodges for overnight stay. Jagat is the starting point of Restricted Area to enter Upper Manaslu. We then checked into a nice lodge and after checking into a nice room, you will have time to explore the local cultures of the local hill people.

Day 5: Trek to Dyang 1,860 m via Philim village-06 hours.

After a long first-day walk and climb to Jagat, today is an average hour of trekking. The trail follows downs and ups to cross few bridges over tributaries streams of Buddhi Gandaki River. Then our climb leads to a Salleri, a small village, before descending towards Sirdibas. The trail leads across a small bridge above Gatte Khola / stream with climb to Philim, a large farm village. The village is populated by the Gurung hill tribes and we will stop here for lunch. In the afternoon, we walk on a gradual winding trail to a small settlement at Ekle Bhatti. From here, we take a short descent to cross a stream, then towards our overnight stop at Dyang/Deng, a nice farm village. After checking in a nice simple lodge, we will spend our time to explore the local culture. From Dyang onwards one can observe a strong Tibetan Buddhism religion.

Day 6: Trek to Namrung 2, 660 m-06 hours.

The morning after breakfast we cross over the Budhi Gandaki River and climb to a small settlement at Bhi. From here our walk enters a lovely cool forest to reach Prok, another nice small village. The walk continues coming across Buddhist monuments all the way to Namrung for overnight stop. A nice village with grand views of Mt. Manaslu North Face.

Day 7: Trek to Lo-Gaon 3, 180 m-05 hours.

From Namrung, the journey heads higher towards the Upper areas of Manaslu to reach Lo-Gaon. Your morning walks start with exciting views of Sringi and Ganesh Himal with Himal Chuli in the south. The walk follows with a climb into a dense forest to Lihi, where you will find a large number of Buddhist stupas. Enjoy the fabulous scenery of terraces filled with barley and buckwheat, as the walk follows down across the valley. Then walk to small areas of Sho, and finally, the walk completes for the day reaching Lo-Gaon for an overnight stop. The village is situated in beautiful locations covered with lovely pines and rhododendron forests. At Lo-Gaon, you can relax in the comfort of a nice lodge, beneath the towering Mt. Manaslu. You will have time to explore the village and the Ribung monastery.

Day 8: Trek to Sama-Gaon 3, 500 m /11, 480 feet-06 hours.

In the morning, you can enjoy the magnificent views of snow-clad peaks with the majestic North Face of Mt. Manaslu. After breakfast, we begin the day and the walk enters the wide valley of Manaslu, following a moderate path to Sama-Gaon. The trail leads us to a short climb and then downhill to Shayla, another lovely village with superb views of snow peaks. Enjoying the lovely scenery of beautiful landscapes and snow peaks, the walk ends reaching Sama-Gaon. A great place for views of Manaslu, Himal Chuli and Peak 29 (Ngadi Chuli). Overnights in a nice cozy lodge, and you can enjoy the rest of the afternoon overlooking the majestic mountain views.

Day 9: At Sama-Gaon rest day for acclimatization and excursion.

Today is a rest day for acclimatization in Sama-Gaon. A perfect height for acclimatization with an option for hiking to scenic viewpoints. You will walk further high to Birendra Lake en route Manaslu Base Camp, visit an old Pungyen Gompa, and have time to relax while enjoying the grand views of the giant snow dusted mountains. Women of Sama Gaon in the mountainous region live a hardworking lifestyle, managing agriculture, raising livestock, and weaving traditional clothing, while inspiring others through their resilience, strong community bonds, and cultural preservation.

Day 10: Trek to Samdo 3,875 m -05 hours.

After a pleasant rest at Sama Gaon, morning walk leads to Samdo, the last village around Manaslu and Gorkha district. It is also en route to the Tibet border and towards our Larke-La Pass. The walk follows on a dry and arid terrain with short steep climb to reach a wide field. Then, we will reach Samdo, one of the largest settlement around Manaslu Valley. A nice village with good lodge accommodation for overnight stop with grand views of snow peaks.

Day 11: Trek to Dharmasala 4, 450 m /14, 596 feet-04 hours.

The walk this morning leads to the end of Manaslu Valley rim, making a short day with a lunch and overnight stop. From Samdo village we walk down to the river bed, and over a wooden bridge. After the bridge, we take a short climb to cross several streams to reach Dharmasala, after crossing Salka Khola / stream. At Dharmasala or Larke Phedi, the bottom of the pass, we check into a lodge. You can enjoy lunch while facing views of the surrounding peaks, with Larke Peak Glacier nearby. The rest of the afternoon is at leisure, allowing you to conserve energy for the long climb and trek to Bhimthang or Bhimphedi the following day.

Day 12: Trek to Bhimphedi 3, 590 m via Larke-La Pass 5,106 m -08 hours.

In the early morning, we start the big day of the adventure. After having a good breakfast we will carry a packed lunch, and start to walk heading to Larke-La Pass. We start the morning walk heading north-west with steep climb with close views of Cheo-Danda and Larke Peak. After hours of tough steep haul, we then finally reach on top of Larke-La Pass. The highest point of the adventures, offers spectacular panorama of towering peaks that encircles the top. Enjoy the stunning views of Himlung Himal, Cheo Himal, and Annapurna II-III and A-IV. You will also see a Ganesh Himal with series of Manaslu range of peaks at far distance with some peaks of Nar Phu areas. Celebrate the success of conquering Larke La Pass with your female friends, guides, and porters which is a great achievement, showcasing the courage, strength, and unity of women adventurers in the mountains. After an exciting and tiring moments, we head downhill towards Cheo Danda and Larcia. The trail continues reaching at the base of Larke Pass on the western side around Manang district. From the Phedi or bottom of the pass, we will reach back into dense forest to Bhimphedi, also called Bhimthang.

A wonderful spot on a wide grassy field, amidst tall tree lines of oaks, pines, firs and rhododendrons. Upon reaching, you will check in the best lodge. Enjoy the comfort in a nice lodge accommodation, after a long and toughest walk of the adventure.

Day 13: Trek to Gho 2,535 m- 04 hrs.

A leisure morning for breakfast, due to the hard long walk of the previous day. From Bhimphedi, the trail leads us to a pleasant and short walk to Gho passing through dense woods downhill. After a few hours of pleasant morning hikes, we then reach Gho for an overnight halt which is located within the beautiful forest in a serene environment. In the afternoon you can enjoy some leisure time.

Day 14: Trek to Dharapani village 1,820 m -05 hrs.

Enjoy the day with the last final walk of the adventure to Dharapani village. The trail follows downhill through the forest and then reaches the lovely nice village of Tilje, located above Masrsyangdi River and close to Dharapani village. We will stop at Tilje for lunch and from here we will take a short climb to cross a bridge above Masrsyangdi River to reach Dharapani village. You can enjoy the last overnight in a mountain village, situated on the side of a motorable road at the junction of Annapurna and Manaslu Circuit trekking routes.

Day 15: Drive to Kathmandu and transfer to hotel -08 hours.

We start the morning as early as possible for the long and interesting drive to Kathmandu. After having breakfast, we then board in a jeep or similar four-wheel drive which is best for mountainous rough dirt roads. The drive heads down towards lower warm farm villages on leaving the Manang areas after Tal village. The drive continues past Chamje and Jagat, winding downhill to Syange, and then reaches the large town of Besisahar. The headquarters of Lamjung district, from here the drive leads on a good road to join the Pokhara and Kathmandu highway at Dumre Town.

A pleasant ride to Mugling Bazaar, following the Trisuli River for a few hours. As the drive climbs up on a winding road for a few hours, we reach Kathmandu Valley and then back into the bustling city. After a long interesting overland journey, you then check into your Hotels. We will arrive at the hotel by dinner time and for a good rest. The driving distance from Dharapani to Kathmandu is approximately 212 km / 132 miles.

FAQS

1. What is Circuit Trekking?

Circuit trekking is a loop trek that starts at one point and ends at another. The endpoint won't be the same as the starting point, it goes in a circular route rather than retracing the same route. In case of Manaslu Circuit Trek, the starting point is Soti Khola and the endpoint is usually Dharapani which is a scenic journey through diverse cultures, landscapes, and high mountain passes.

2. How difficult is the Manaslu Circuit Trek?

The Manaslu Circuit Trek can be considered challenging because of the remote trails, and higher altitude trek. It has a maximum altitude of 5,160 meters at Larkya La Pass which can be tough for some. However, the trek is overall rewarding with adequate acclimatization and fitness.

3. How long is the Manaslu Circuit trek?

Usually the full trek is completed in 14 to 18 days depending on side trips, like Tsum Vally or Manaslu Base Camp. Weather can also impact it as will the pace of the trekker. The total distance covered by the trail is approximately 177 kilometers (110 miles).

4. How to do Manaslu Circuit Trek?

The Manaslu Circuit Trek preparation requires:

A registered trekking agency for logistics and permit requirements.

You need the following permits:

- An Annapurna Conservation Area Permit (ACAP)
- Manaslu Conservation Area Permit (MCAP)
- Manaslu Restricted Area Permit (MRAP)

Solo trekking in the Manaslu region is not allowed; hence, one licensed guide is required. At least two people are needed in a group for the restricted permit.

We take care of everything, including guides, permits, transport, and accommodation, tailored for your comfort and safety.

5. What is the best time for the Manaslu Circuit Trek?

The best times for trekking are during spring, which lasts from March to May, and autumn, from September to November. During these periods, the weather is stable with a clear mountain view, and the passage is safe over Larkya La pass.

6. Is the Manaslu Circuit Trek crowded?

No, it is one of the quieter treks in Nepal, providing more peaceful, remote, and authentic cultural experiences compared to the Everest or Annapurna regions. It is perfect for people looking to experience true Himalayan wilderness and solitude.

7. What kind of accommodation is available on the Manaslu trek?

Accommodation during the Manaslu trek is in local teahouses, which are basic but comfortable. As the region is still developing, the facilities offered are more basic than in the other popular trekking areas. In some villages, hot showers and charging points are available at an extra cost.

8. Is the Manaslu Circuit Trek worth it?

It is worth it, as trekkers consider it to be one of the best off-the-beaten treks in Nepal. You get panoramic views of Manaslu, which is the world's 8th highest mountain. With fewer crowds and a touch of Tibetan culture, this trek becomes much more adventurous.
